

PAYNTER'S PUZZLES

Terry Paynter has taken lots of photos of places visited on YOSC Club trips. They have all featured in YOSC Newsletters – see if you can identify them. Answers in the Members Data section of the Members Pages.

1. Newsletter September 2005

Adat, But where?

A famous landmark, where?

2. Newsletter October 2005

Where is Adat?

What is this? Where can you find one?

3. Offshore December 2005

Paynter's Puzzles: Where is the harbour? And where is the clock. How does it go?

4. Newsletter February 2006

Which popular harbour entrance?

Who is this member of YOSC?

5. Newsletter March 2006

Where is this stream?

A lighthouse, but where?

6. Newsletter April 2006

The doors are open, but where?

A little used harbour entrance

7. Newsletter May 2006

Another lighthouse, but where?

Lat and Long of where?

8. Newsletter June 2006

We have all seen it. Where?

A bulls eye for big ships. Name it.

Offshore July 2006

Q: A Cathedral or what?

Q: Where do they fly this flag?

Newsletter August 2006

A remote café, but where?

Where is this seldom visited harbour?

Newsletter September 2006

The facilities give it away, but where?

A harbour often passed, but where?

Newsletter October 2006

An unusual top mark, but where?

Pedestrian access to a beach, where

Newsletter November 2006

We should all know this one

Where is this important building?

Newsletter January 2007

We have all passed this, but where?

What is this and where is it?

Newsletter February 2007

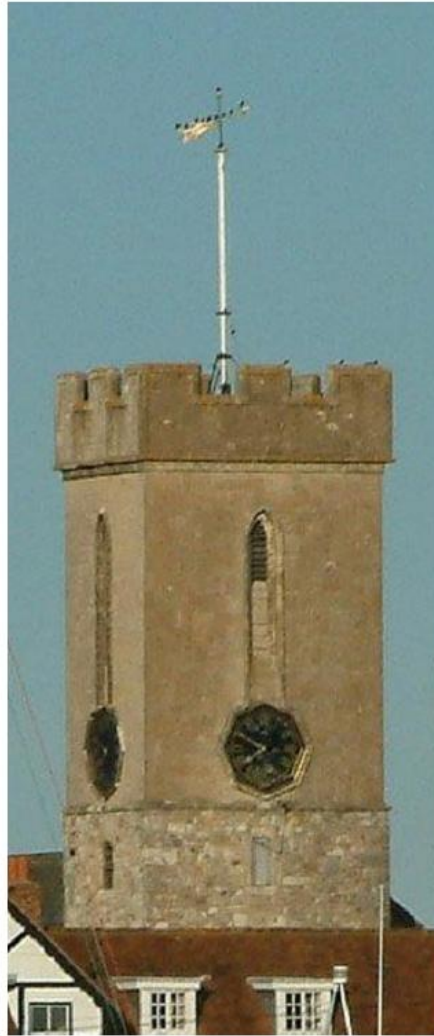

Where is this sun-trapped beach?

Where is this harbour entrance?

Where is this tower?

We have all bent our elbows here, but where is it?

